

Advancing the Management of Prostate Cancer–Related Bone Disease is an interactive, CME-certified, Web activity that discusses the current and emerging therapies used to improve the management of bone disease in men with prostate cancer. This activity is based on information presented at a satellite symposium held on May 29, 2010 in San Francisco, California prior to the 2010 American Urological Association (AUA) Annual Meeting.

Visit BoneOncologyTX.com for this CME activity!

Clinically Challenging Case Activities

Prevention of Fractures During Androgen Deprivation Therapy for Prostate Cancer

<http://www.boneoncologytx.com/>

Description: In this patient case-based activity, Dr. Matthew Smith from Harvard Medical School and Massachusetts General Hospital Cancer Center in Boston, Massachusetts, discusses the current and emerging therapies used to improve the management of bone disease in men with prostate cancer. Emerging clinical trial data is also discussed.

Management and Prevention of Bone Complications in Metastatic Castration Resistant Prostate Cancer

<http://www.boneoncologytx.com/>

Description: In this patient case-based activity, Dr. Celestia Higano from the University of Washington in Seattle, Washington, discusses the current and emerging therapies used to improve the management of bone disease in men with prostate cancer. Emerging clinical trial data is also discussed.